MANNING'S BAKERY

Manning's traditional Irish bakery came from humble beginnings with founder, Cecil Manning, venturing to Dublin from Ahascragh, Co Galway in the 1950s. With a penchant for hard work and innovative ideas, he opened his first bakery shop on Collins Avenue with his wife Patsy. Since then, Manning's Bakery has used only the best Irish ingredients to create traditionally hand-baked cakes, pies, tarts and much more – pleasing Dubliners for generations.

Manning's Bakery supply their freshly prepared frozen products either unbaked or fully baked. The company wouldn't be the success it is today without the passion, time and effort invested by long-serving staff and three generations of the Manning family.
