CHRISTMAS

WELCOME

Ricky O'Brien Foodservice Director

Dear all,

Welcome to the BWG Foodservice Christmas Brochure for 2022.

This is my favourite time of the year. It is a time for friends, families and for enjoying all the delights our hospitality sector has to offer. I am particularly enthused this year because, hopefully for the first time in a number of years, we can look forward to Christmas without the spectre of restrictions looming over us all.

Early signs for Christmas are positive with bookings very much on the increase, highlighting just how central Irish Hospitality is to the economy. This year, I am truly privileged to introduce you to our new BWG Foodservice Christmas Brochure, which is packed with added-value products for our customers, including a full range of chilled, frozen, ambient, beverage, disposables and seasonal delights to get any commercial kitchen through this year's festivities.

As well as some of our Christmas favourites such as the exclusive BWG Foodservice Chef's Kitchen pudding log dessert from Carlow-based bakery Seery's, we are delighted to feature a host of our IQFA gold and bronze medal winning products such as the Individual Caramelised Biscuit Cheesecake from Coolhull Farm, as well as other sumptuous treats like our exclusive Christmas Pudding Cheesecake.

As ever, our commitment to supporting local Irish suppliers is unwavering, as is ensuring that the provenance of products across the Christmas range is readily accessible to the more discerning customers, including vegan and gluten free options. We are proud to include our vegan-friendly and exclusive Chef's Kitchen Blackberry & Apple Compote and Chef's Kitchen Mango, Pineapple & Chilli Chutney in addition to the gluten free Foods of Athenry range.

I accept there are many challenges around energy costs, inflation and announced changes in our VAT rate, but for the first time since 2019 we can approach the festive period confident that customers, revellers and party-goers will be enthused and energised by a restriction-free Christmas. I do have high hopes that people will be more determined than ever to enjoy their Christmas celebrations this year. You and your establishments will have a crucial role to play in providing the best customer experience as well as the best food and drink to help make their Christmas outings all the more memorable. It is our privilege in BWG Foodservice to serve your needs this festive season, whatever they may be and we have prepared a packed Christmas brochure to meet all your requirements.

Thank you for your custom in 2022. I am truly looking forward to celebrating this year's Christmas by supporting you and our wonderful hospitality industry.

Happy Christmas to all.

Ricky O'Brien

Introducing William's Gate

MASTER VICTUALLER

Part of the BWG Foods' family, William's Gate is the dedicated meat and master butchery arm operating from our state-of-the-art facility in Liosbaun, Co. Galway. Our specialist team of highly skilled butchers, protein specialists and chefs are truly passionate about meat; its provenance, its preparation, how it's cooked and how to ensure our customers receive only the best cuts and most sumptuous tasting meat from our team of highly skilled butchers.

We believe investing in our people and their development adds crucial value to our offering, which is why we have invested in a dedicated training centre on-site to upskill and help our people reach their full potential. This unique environment encourages collaboration and innovation and is also available for our customers to utilise. We have made these investments because we understand that the strength of our business comes, not from bricks and mortar or machinery, but from our people and their passion for food.

ALLAN MORRIS,
MANAGING DIRECTOR

Allan started his career as an apprentice butcher in Dublin's famous Moore Street and continued in Cabra on the north side of the city. In the 1990s he moved to Jersey where he honed his experience in high-end catering butchery. He brought this knowledge and experience to some of Ireland's biggest food companies where he created and managed a number of iconic Irish food brands. As an Irish master butcher, he has a uniquely global perspective and is an enthusiastic advocate for Irish beef. It is this dedication and passion that will ensure William's Gate is synonymous with true excellence.

We have the vision and enthusiasm to bring new ideas to the market. Our award-winning quality beef at market leading prices is a must have for every menu. Take a look at our Main Event range on page 11 for a selection of our products and prices.

William's Gate

MASTER VICTUALLER

What sets us apart is the dedication of our people to their craft. We are, ultimately, traditional butchers and are proud to draw inspiration from the traditional approach to hand-crafted butchery that has been such a crucial part of the meat industry in Galway for more than 200 years.

Our core range includes our Everyday Quality Beef and our William's Gate Prime.

William's Gate Atelier

THE BEST COMES FROM THE ATELIER

At William's Gate Atelier we have a passion for producing truly outstanding butchery quality. That excellence and artistry is reflected in our premium cuts, such as our mouth-watering Wagyu Steaks and our Air-Dried Beef. Remember, they're not just William's Gate, they're William's Gate Atelier.

Our 1908 brand honours the year in which the first agricultural trade show took place in Ireland. Our premium dry-aged beef is part of the 1908 brand. We've built a custom designed dry-ageing room because we believe the flavour results are worth the effort. And with 1908 on the pack, you can be assured you are buying the best.

CHEF'S KITCHEN MANGO, PINEAPPLE & CHILLI CHUTNEY

Our Irish made mango, pineapple and chilli chutney is so versatile- use as a stand-alone condiment, with cold meats or cheese, in salads and sandwiches, as a glaze for a ham or salmon fillet or as an ingredient in cooking to create a spicy fruity flavour.

Treats FROM THE BAKERY

Just add freshly whipped cream or pour on some warm custard for

CINNAMON BUNS

Cinnamon buns are based on an enriched sweet dough base, rolled into swirls with a strong cinnamon filling. They are lightly baked and topped off with a cream cheese icing, which has a subtle and complementary background flavour of citrus orange.
