|----------------------------|---|
| 10 Chicken Fillets         | 18g Cayenne Pepper                                |
| 300g Butter                | 100g Tomato Ketchup                               |
| 150ml Vegetable Oil        | 150g Plain Flour (+extra forbreeding station) |
| 300ml Apple Juice          | 3L Water  |
| 100g Garam Masala          | 5 eggs  |
| 200g Curry Powder          | Panko Breadcrumbs                                 |
| 100ml Soy Sauce            |   |
| 100ml Worcestershire Sauce |   |

Serves 10

METHOD:

1. Heat a pot and add the butter and vegetable oil.
2. Stir in the apple juice, garam masala, curry powder, soy sauce, Worcestershire sauce, cayenne pepper, and tomato ketchup.
3. Add the plain flour and mix well until there are no lumps. Add the water and allow it to come to a boil. Stir the mix and remove from the heat. This is your curry sauce.
4. Make a vertical cut on the chicken fillet and unfold it at the crevice to make it thinner and flatter.
5. Break the egg and mix it onto a plate until combined.
6. In two separate plates, add the flour and panko breadcrumbs.
7. Dip the chicken fillet in the flour first, followed by the egg and finish in the panko breadcrumbs. Ensure the chicken is fully coated with the breadcrumbs. Repeat this step with each fillet.
8. Pre-heat a pan and add 45ml of vegetable oil. Fry the chicken fillets one by one until fully cooked.
9. Transfer the cooked chicken to a plate layered with kitchen tissue to ensure excess oil is absorbed.
10. Once oil is absorbed, place the chicken on a clean plate and cut pieces into long thin strips.
11. Serve your breaded chicken with cooked rice and the curry sauce prepared earlier.
