Back In Business

According to recent research conducted by Easy Food Magazine, 84% of 8,000 people surveyed in Ireland say they now plan to eat out as often, if not more often than they did before COVID-19 restrictions were put in place. 95% agree that it is extremely important to support Irish restaurants, bars and food suppliers and 40% have missed going out for food and drink far more than they thought they would.* With that in mind, you'll want to stock your kitchen with all of the essentials needed to bring your A-game once your doors reopen.

Top Tips

1 This has been a period of deep uncertainty for your staff, so check in to find out how they're feeling to make them feel supported. Your team is crucial in helping deliver positive interactions with customers.

2 It's now more important than ever to make your customers feel comfortable. And, you can do this by clearly outlining all of the extra measures you're taking to ensure your establishment is safe and clean. Communicate verbally, include messaging on your website and social media pages, or communicate some of your workplace protocols in poster messages.

3 It's important not to forget to continue to engage with your customers online now that your doors are open. You've more than likely expanded your online community over the past number of weeks, so make sure not to lose it. Try to keep up regular social posting to utilise social media to its full potential.

The burger the better

While DIY at-home burger kits have proven popular over the past few weeks, your customers will relish the chance to try a new variation once your doors open.

Sure thing, chicken wing

A good chicken wing should be crunchy on the outside and succulent on the inside. Try coating your wings in seasoned cornflour instead of regular flour for an even crispier finish.

CODE	DESCRIPTION	SIZE	PRICE
697014	CHICKEN WINGS STEAM COOKED	1KG x 5	€16.99
694247	CHICKEN WINGS MID/PRIME	10KG	€24.99

683737	DOWN 2 EARTH CONTAINER SQUARE 8IN	50PK x 4	€38.37

TOP TIP
Cauliflower wings are a great alternative for customers sticking to a plant-based diet. Toss your cauliflower in cornflour, cumin and garam masala and serve with burnt lime raita and mango chutney for a tasty Indian twist!

The inside scoop

Summer and ice-cream go hand-in-hand so get creative with your dessert menu this season by using ice-cream to its full potential.

Traditional ice-cream sundaes like fruity Knickerbocker Glories always go down a treat but why not try adding a boozy sundae to your menu for adults-only? Add a shot of chocolate liqueur to three scoops of salted caramel ice-cream and top with broken brownie pieces, chocolate sauce, whipped cream and nuts of your choice.

You can even jazz up your coffee menu for the summer months with Italian Affagato. Add a scoop of vanilla ice-cream to a glass and top with a shot of hot espresso. Some variations even include a shot of Amaretto and you can go the extra mile by topping it off with frothed milk and chopped nuts!

All wrapped up

Stock up on napkins, food wraps and sandwich wedges for items like burgers, sandwiches and hotdogs. Provide these so customers don't have to touch food directly with their hands. Many customers may request they get their food in a takeaway container, so make sure to have plenty to hand too.
