Master Butchers

GLASÁN FARM

Following the addition of Heaney Meats into our foodservice family, we are now in a position to supply the highest quality Irish beef to our customers. The Glasán Farm brand is the culmination of over 300 years of Heaney Meat's family tradition. Our master butchers adhere to a traditional method of maturation and natural tenderisation which has been passed down by generations. The brand guarantees quality and consistency with the beef aged for at least 21 days and only accepts steers and heifers under 36 months at the time of slaughter. This ensures the best in eating quality, taste and texture which will keep customers coming back for more. The steaks featured are all part of the exclusive Glasán Farm brand.
